

Showcasing Information Literacy: Library Events and Programs Workshop

---

Lauren Ray, Elliott Stevens & Madeline Mundt
University of Washington, Seattle, USA

WELCOME

Plan for today:

- 1.CoLAB Activity
- 2.Interdisciplinary Connection & Workplace Information Literacy
- 3.Research Commons Program Models
- 4.Creativity Sprint

GOALS FOR TODAY

- > Leave with ideas for implementing library program models to support workplace IL
- > Learn about connections between interdisciplinarity and workplace IL
- > Identify communities at your institution that would benefit from interdisciplinary connection
- > Engage with other workshop attendees

COLAB

1. Stand up and find a partner
2. Read your partner's sign
3. Focus on something & converse for 3 minutes
4. No need to capture contact info
5. When bell rings, say good-bye
6. Repeat

INTERDISCIPLINARITY

Interdisciplinary thinking is rapidly becoming an integral feature of research as a result of four powerful “drivers”: the inherent complexity of nature and society, the desire to explore problems and questions that are not confined to a single discipline, the need to solve societal problems, and the power of new technologies.

MYTHS ABOUT INTERDISCIPLINARITY

- > Interdisciplinarity is new.
- > Genuine interdisciplinarity is...
- > Interdisciplinary work is superficial.
- > Interdisciplinarity threatens the disciplines.
- > Interdisciplinarity is impossible to do.

Meet the Participants

Send questions about this workspace to Lauren Ray.

Description

Below you'll find scanned signs of our CoLAB workshop participants. We asked participants to respond to five questions:

- What is your area of study or research interest and why are you passionate about this work?
- What are your strongest skills (In relation to research, technology, instruction, programming, design, communication, etc.)?
- What digital projects/studies are you developing or interested in developing?
- What's one thing people don't know about you?

Digital Storytelling Fellows [SPR2017]

Welcome to the UW Libraries Digital Storytelling Workshop. This is an intensive two-week course that will guide you through the development of your own digital story: how you came to your research, what motivated you to become a researcher, and where your research is taking you.

CASE STUDY: Julian's Journey

- > Brought Scholars' Studio to the Geography Dept.
- > Presented at Scholars' Studio (Advocacy)
- > Participated in Storytelling Fellows
- > Will share work at "Hacking the Academy"

---

- > Reflect, using the handout.
- > Get in groups of four and share reflections.
- > Work together to come up with program ideas for institutions of your choosing.
- > Share with the big group!

Ideas? Questions?

---

- > Ideas that you're bringing back to your institutions?
- > Questions for us?
- > Questions for others in this room?
